ABOUT CMS MUN

CMS MUN has evolved into a distinguished platform for students to engage with the principles and functioning of the United Nations. Across its editions, the conference has fostered diplomatic communication, critical thinking, and a nuanced understanding of international relations and global geopolitics. Through substantive debate, negotiation, and collaboration, CMS MUN provides delegates an environment to examine complex issues, articulate informed perspectives, and engage with contemporary diplomacy. Its continued growth and national participation have established CMS MUN as a prominent conference within the Southern Circuit, while upholding its commitment to intellectual rigour and meaningful discourse.

With each edition, CMS MUN builds upon its foundations, bringing together carefully curated committees and experienced Executive Boards to foster thoughtful deliberation and constructive engagement. The conference strives to provide delegates with an enriching experience that reflects the evolving nature of diplomacy and international affairs.

As CMS MUN enters its thirteenth edition, we remain committed to carrying this legacy forward and advancing its standard of excellence. Guided by the college motto, “Performance is reality,” CMS MUN V13 seeks to foster solution-oriented deliberations, meaningful collaboration, and diplomatic engagement that extends beyond the conference, resonating both Nationally and Globally.

LETTER FROM THE CO-SECRETARY GENERALS

Dear Delegates,

It gives us immense pride and pleasure to welcome you to the 13th Edition of CMS Model United Nations - CMS MUN V13, hosted by JAIN (Deemed-to-be University), Centre for Management Studies.

Thirteen editions represent far more than the passage of time; they reflect a legacy built upon intellectual curiosity, spirited debate, meaningful dialogue, and a shared commitment to understanding the complexities of our world. Over the years, CMS MUN has evolved into a platform where young minds come together not merely to deliberate on global affairs, but to question perspectives, challenge assumptions, and engage meaningfully with the issues that shape our world.

As you enter your respective committees, we encourage you to research diligently, speak with conviction, listen with purpose, and negotiate with an open mind. The essence of diplomacy lies not merely in presenting arguments, but also in recognising when to challenge, when to collaborate, and when to find common ground. CMS MUN V13 is envisioned as more than a simulation of international diplomacy; it is an opportunity to experience the responsibility of representation, appreciate perspectives beyond our own, and develop the confidence to engage with complex issues through reasoned dialogue.

We hope that you leave this conference with more than just awards or memorable speeches. May you depart with new perspectives, meaningful connections, stronger arguments, and a deeper appreciation for the art of diplomacy. On behalf of the entire CMS MUN V13 Secretariat, we extend our warmest welcome to each of you. May the days ahead be filled with thought-provoking deliberations, constructive disagreements, meaningful negotiations, and experiences that remain with you long after the conference concludes.

Welcome to CMS MUN V13. Let the dialogue begin.

Warm regards,
Aadya Mittal & Chirag Shiyal
Co-Secretaries-General
CMS MUN V13

COMMITTEES

ALL INDIA POLITICAL PARTIES MEET (AIPPM)

AIPPM reflects India's political landscape, providing a platform where delegates assume the roles of political leaders and address pressing national issues. The committee brings together diverse ideologies, policy perspectives, and political strategies, requiring deliberation, negotiation, and constructive discourse to advance meaningful outcomes. Delegates engage in discussions that mirror India's electorate, navigate political considerations, and pursue pragmatic, inclusive solutions to the nation's pressing challenges. Every intervention can shape political and social discourse, underscoring the importance of dialogue, consensus-building, and representing the people's aspirations through debate and collaborative decision-making through constructive political engagement.

Agenda: Deliberation upon the Current functioning of ECI with Special emphasis on ongoing exercises by the Constitutional body.

UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL (UNHRC)

UNHRC represents the international community's commitment to protecting and promoting human rights, providing a platform for member states to address humanitarian concerns. The committee brings together legal and diplomatic perspectives, requiring constructive dialogue and principled negotiation to safeguard the rights, freedoms, and dignity of individuals worldwide. Delegates engage in deliberations, examine human rights challenges, and pursue sustainable solutions grounded in justice and equality. UNHRC emphasizes international cooperation, consensus-building, and collective action, underscoring the shared responsibility to advance human rights and uphold fundamental freedoms across the global community through principled diplomatic engagement.

Agenda: Deliberating on the Humanitarian Situation in Somalia.

UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL (UNSC)

UNSC stands at the centre of the international system for maintaining peace and security, addressing threats to stability and responding to matters of global consequence. Comprising 15 member states, including five permanent members with veto authority, the Council operates amid competing diplomatic priorities and evolving geopolitical realities. As delegates, participants engage in high-level deliberations, navigate complex negotiations, formulate resolutions, and collaborate to address pressing international crises. The committee demands strategic foresight, diplomatic precision, coalition-building, and the ability to reconcile national interests while pursuing consensus and advancing international peace and security through collective action.

Agenda: Yemen Conflict : Saudi Involvement and Regional Security.

CONTINUOUS CRISIS COMMITTEE (CCC)

CCC, places delegates at the centre of an evolving and unpredictable environment where circumstances can transform without warning. The committee simulates high-pressure scenarios in which delegates must exercise sound judgment, develop innovative responses, and adapt swiftly to developments that can redefine the course of events within moments. In CCC, participants assume influential roles and navigate intricate political, social, or military challenges while engaging with competing interests, divergent priorities, and shifting alliances. Every decision contributes to the progression of the crisis, making strategic thinking, collaboration, adaptability, and decisive diplomacy essential to navigating its complexities effectively.

Agenda: The Attack on Pearl Harbor: Freeze date-7 December 1941.

INTERNATIONAL PRESS CORPS (IPC)

IPC serves as the conference's journalistic body, documenting diplomacy through reporting and photojournalism. Members cover committee proceedings, conduct delegate interviews, write concise articles, capture key moments through photography, and prepare accurate captions and updates for publication. They observe debates, negotiations, and informal interactions, ensuring that significant developments and diverse perspectives are represented fairly. Through responsible reporting, compelling visual storytelling, and coordination with the press team, IPC members preserve the conference's record while keeping participants informed. Every article and photograph contributes to a comprehensive account of the MUN, reflecting its discussions, decisions, and diplomatic spirit.

Agenda: Journalism and Photojournalism
